- We must live on Union avenue,
 And eat of Union bread,
 Must have a Union trademark
 In the hat that's on our head.
 Must don our Union breeches,
 And put on a Union coat,
- And must use some Union paper When we wish to write a note.

- We must have a Union label
 On tobacco that we smoke.
 We must get a Union uncle
 To relieve us when we're broke.
 Our shees must all be Union made,
 Umbrellas, too, the same,
 And cards must bear the Union mark
 When we sit in the game.
- We must have the Union trademark
- Stamped on everything we eat,
 From the plebeian potato
 To the cabbage and the beet,
 For they're likely to boycott us,
 All these Unions if 'tis found
 That we've eaten any veg'tables
 Not raised in Union ground.
- We must have a Union housemaid,
 We must take a Union paper,
 And must read a Union book,
 We must have a Union shirt ou,
 With the lab-l full in view,
 And when it comes to babies—
 They're a Union product, too.
- We must have a Union coffin,
 When we're buried, at the last,
 With a Union undertaker,
 That shall screw the lid down fast.

IF YOU WOULD BE INFLUENCED

OR GUIDED FOR YOUR OWN WELFARE By the experience of 75 of your neighbors and friends, keep this fact ever before your mind: The average GAS BILL per month in 75 residences right here in Maysville-where Gas Ranges were in use last summer for the months of Jone, July, August and September-was $2.81. Think of it, 9% cents per day. Where are you getting any such value with any 10 cents that you spend? No other means that you can command will work such wonders at so small a cost. Who is there so poor that cannot afford it?

THE next order from the Chicago Federation of Labor may be directed against those who drink from Lake Michigan, whose water is not altogether Union-made.

THERE may not be anything wrong about it; but when I know a man who formerly worked for $12 a week, and who within twenty years has become a three-quarter-millionaire with an income of $100,000 a year, who is not engaged in any business but politics and has nothing to sell but "fluence,"—why, then, I begin to wonder how he got his money.

A PHILANTHROPIC gentleman at Washington City has just sent me a program for draining the 7,000,000 acres of land in the Everglades of Florida, the vast area of Dismal Swamp of Virginia, 4,000,000 acres in Illinois, 6,000,000 in Michigan, 2,000,000 in Iowa, 5,000,000 in Minnesota, with several other precincts unreported; but what I really desire is a plan for draining the canals that Maysville calls streets.

That Police Judge at Evansville, Ind., is a peach. A Kentucky Hay Raiser ventured into that town a few days ago laden with $400. Three Hoosier Cardsharps made his acquaintance, and soon his wealth took a walk along the Seven-up route. Then Judge Winfrey took a hand in the game, and "called" three of the gamesters to the tune of $2,000 in fines, with costs as long as a woman's postcript added.

LET us be thankful for little things. The late Legislature left Maysville out of the "dry" belt; that is, she is free to vote on the liquor question without reference to the outlying precints.

THE Chicago Laborites having declared for a Union cemetery and Union-made coffins, it now remains only to proclaim that no workman shall enter Heaven unless he has the Union label tacked on the seat of his pants.

Some of the best bills before the Assembly were defeated because a majority of the members failed to make use of their opportunity for disinterested and patriotic service.—Louisville Times.

Just so. There wasn't an office at the end of them for some member or for the friend of some LOUISVILLE firemen are an industrious and ambitious set. Two of them recently engaged in a pie-eating contest for a wager of $5. They were to eat one pie each the first day, two pies each the second day, three the third day, and so on until one man admitted his defeat. When they had reached the twelve pie gamut one fellow fell down on the third, while the other's pie-face was just getting in good working order, finishing his fourth and winning the stake.

WHAT HE THOUGHT.

Harper's Weekly.

The man stammered painfully. His name was Sissons. Especially difficult to him was the pronunciation of his own name. He had the misfortune to stay out late and uproariously one night, and to account for it before the Magistrate at the Palice Court next morning. "What is your name?" asked the Court.

Sissons began his reply, "Sss—ss—sss—siss—"
"Stop that noise and tell me what is your name," said
the Judge, impatiently.

"Siss—sss—sissss—"

"That will do," said His Honor, severely. "Officer, what is this man charged with?"

"I think, Your Honor, he's charged with sody water."

Bad Blood Made Good

The season of the year is approaching when we show the effect of the indoor confinement of winter. It is time when the blood gets impure through lack of exercise and because of the amount of beatmaking foods that are apt to be consumed during cold weather. Dullness, depression and lassitude are the results. A good blood purifier will pay large returns in increased hedlth and new energy. We know of nothing better than

Chenoweth's Sarsaparilla

This is a remedy which is compounded on scientific principles. It purifies and enriches the blood, aids digestion, clears the complexion and gives new strength and energy.

Lest any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proofstatements from Maysville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent.

> Here's a Maysville case. George N. Crawford, blacksmith and wheelwright, at Second and Lee streets, and living at 216 Lee street, Maysville, Ky., says: "In the spring of 1900 I gave a testimonial telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I am pleased to say I can just as warmly recommend this remedy now as I did then. Ne other medicine ever gave me such prompt and positive relief from backache and kidney trouble as Doan's Kidney Pills procured at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, and I believe them to be by far the best remedy for kidneys there is. Sufferers from such troubles ought to give it a trial."
